

Remember The Time

Written by
Chris Regez

1.       A       A7maj                   Hm       E7
Friday 5 o'clock I've done my work I'm goin' home
  A                   A7maj
But there's no one around my girl's gone
          Hm                   E7
Now I got the Friday blues
                  D   A
I leave my place head for the bar and drink my pain away
                  D
Stare at our picture of better days
                  E7
Your memory won't fade away

Ch.       D                                   A
You remember the time we've spent
          D                                   E
Together in perfect harmony
          D                                   A                   D
Oh baby say why did it end
                  A                   E                   A
Please come back and stay here with me

2.       Late at night I'm goin' home
      Try to clear my mind but I feel so cheap
      I lay downd tryin' to fall asleep
      But I can't honey cause I still miss you so
      I'd like to talk to you but your line is busy
      Now all I'm gonna do tonight is dream of you
